From the Dean

Happy New Year, and congratulations for surviving another season of Christmas joy and merriment.

With no local chapter event scheduled for January, I encourage you to consider attending the January Jump Start on Saturday, the 16th at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church. Eight of our neighboring chapters are joining forces to present a smorgasbord of workshops. In case you overlooked the details of that day, the full schedule was included in our December Bombarde. It looks to be a great day. Call up some of your chapter friends, fill up two or three cars, and spend the day getting rejuvenated.

If you have not yet done so, be certain to enter the dates of all forthcoming Harrisburg Chapter events into your new 2010 calendars. Take special note of our next regular program, which is coming up on Saturday, February 6th. Chapter member Robert Lau will share with us a lot of easy improvisational ideas. I don't know about you, but I am always looking for new little techniques that I can add to my tool bag of improvisational tricks. See you there!

Now that our holiday "rush" is history, it is not too early to think about the summer. Why not plan now to attend the AGO National Convention this summer? D.C. is a wonderful location for national conventions: Just think about all the wonderful instruments that reside there. In addition, who can think of a better place to spend the Fourth of July than in our Nation's Capital. The District of Columbia celebrates its 100th anniversary during 2010. You can find out everything you need to know (and then some) at <http://www.ago2010.org/>. The online registration process was extremely easy to complete. Trust me!

Board Reminder: Don't forget about our next meeting, coming up on January 12 (7 PM) at Trinity Lutheran Church, Camp Hill.

Membership

How many of us make New Year's resolutions at the start of a New Year? And how easily do we break those well-intended resolutions? It seems like a very easy resolution would be to ask a non chapter member to become a member. A good way to initiate this might be to bring the non-member to an AGO event. If all of us gave this idea 100% we would greatly add to our membership!

Getting to Know . . .

. . . Kathryn Haskins

by Ruth Brommer

Do you want to meet someone who is brimming over with enthusiasm for the organ and love for all fellow creatures, human and otherwise? How about someone who readily improvises and can play almost anything by ear? Well, you'll want to get to know Kathy Haskins, who is currently the Minister of Music at St. Michael's of all Angels Episcopal Church in Middletown. She is a graduate of Mansfield University, where she earned her BS in English. How did she get into music?

It all started when she took her first piano lessons at age 5 from her grandmother, Frances Thorpe, who was a concert pianist. She continued to study piano until she was seventeen. She began playing the organ at the United Methodist Church in Mahaffey, PA at thirteen and continued until she left for college. The position was actually pianist/organist, and because she had had no formal training on the organ, she improvised and has always played pedals with her left foot. Fortunately, she began studying with Suzanne Klinedinst, and has found that the hardest part of her organ learning experience is to USE BOTH FEET!

Everyone has experienced a few milestones in their music career and Kathy is no exception. Hers came when her family traveled to Pittsburgh to attend a figure skating competition. She was playing the piano on the mezzanine floor of the Hilton Hotel. As people began arriving in their dress finery for Urban League of Pittsburgh dinner, Kathy got up to leave, but was told not to stop by a hotel employee. Later, she was asked to play after their dinner, and being holiday time, the group sang several Christmas carols. While singing the Gloria in Excelsis Deo, a beautiful operatic voice rang out over the hotel. This beautiful moment was provided by one of the dinner guests – non other than Leontyne Price! She also counts being made Minister of Music at St. Michael's a very proud moment in her life.

Born in McGees Mills, PA, a very small town named after her great-great-grandfather, Kathy says that there is no music that doesn't interest her except Rap. She has played by ear since she was four. Her father was a cellist in the Philadelphia Philharmonic and they often played show tunes and classical pieces as she grew up. She learned to play the clarinet in Junior High School, but only so that she could get into the football games for free!

She chose to become an organist because of her association with her current church. She had been asked by the parish priest to accept a position as organist because the organist at that time was unable to continue her duties. She began as a pianist, and was welcomed and encouraged by the parishioners. She continued with St. Michael's for three years and was made Minister of Music. After a six month hiatus, she was called back to St. Michael's. Once again she began as a pianist to fill in until a permanent organist could be found. It was then that she decided to be the organist they sought. She found her teacher in Suzanne Klinedinst, and told the current priest that she would like to be the organist they were seeking. As she has continued to study and to improve her organist abilities, her church has expressed appreciation for her efforts, and she is overwhelmingly motivated to continue to study.

Kathy loves to cook and has worked in the world of catering. She also enjoys gardening and horticulture, but reading is a real passion, along with a love of volunteering her musical abilities. She has two sons: Danny, who was once in the top ten in the nation in Jr. Pairs figure skating. He currently teaches skating. Charlie, at age 22, is employed by the state as a landscaper.

Kathy's borrowed her "words of wisdom" from comedian George Gobel. They seem especially appropriate for those just coming into or who are new to the church music field, and who feel a lack in both experience and self-confidence:

"Ever get the feeling that the world is a tuxedo, and you wore a pair of brown shoes?? PERSEVERE!"
