The Bombarde

American Guild of Organists – Harrisburg Chapter

From the Dean

The warmth and colors of May usually mark the near-end of a busy church year of music making. Many thoughts begin to emerge about summer activities and relaxation. Before you get too deep into that euphoria, let me put before you some important “to-do” items.

May 7th is the deadline for making your end-of-the-year dinner reservation. This will now be the third consecutive year that we enjoy the splendid hospitality of Karen Appel and husband Bob. Each year that party has grown larger and larger. Do join with us to find out why, as well as witness the installation of next year’s officers. The Regional Convention Steering Committee will be on hand to present an overview of the forthcoming 2011 Convention.

When you do arrive and for the banquet, be certain to have your local election ballot prepared to turn in. If you absolutely cannot attend the banquet, be certain to get that ballot into the mail immediately so that it is received by May 17th. And speaking of elections, while you complete the Harrisburg Chapter ballot, why not take five minutes to send in your National Officer Ballots. And, new this year, you can complete that one online; Much easier. Just check out the details in your April TAO.

Ready to relax yet, folks? Wait. We’re not quite done yet. May is also the time to send in those Membership Renewals. Those forms are included with this issue (online as well). Those renewals MUST be received by June 30. More important, calling or sending out reminders is very time consuming and labor intensive for Doris Savage and her committee. So friends, send in those renewals now!

Usually our program year ends with the May banquet. Not true this year. Do remember the three days of events with Composer/Conductor Bob Chilcott, June 3, 4, & 5. You, as a chapter member, may attend any of the events. I would especially urge you to come out for the Saturday morning workshop. See the March Bombarde for all the details.

In retrospect, Ken Cowan’s recent recital in Camp Hill was musically and technically outstanding. Pleasant weather brought out a large and appreciative audience. This chapter got its monies’ worth on this one! And thank you, David Binkley, for taking care of the many details of that program.

Now that you’ve taken care of this to-do list, you can relax. I hope to see lots of you in Washington, beginning on the Fourth of July. Do come and enjoy the extravagance of the forthcoming National Convention. D.C. has a history of producing wonderful conventions. Enjoy, and be refreshed!

Arnold ‘Zack’ Sten,
Dean

Our mission is to promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles, to encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music, and to provide a forum for mutual support, inspiration, education, and certification of Guild members.

Convention Corner

Last month's article mentioned that planning to host a Regional convention starts three years prior to the date. More than 30 members of the Harrisburg Chapter have already been involved in the planning of 2011 Region III convention. Throughout the convention discussion, there has been a focus on young musicians who are the future of the AGO. And the goals of the Harrisburg convention are centered on providing an affordable convention with opportunities for the musicians of our future to expand their knowledge and appreciation of the AGO as well as to support networking among all musicians who attend our convention.

The Publicity committee has been very busy in the past few months putting together the artwork for the Region III convention. We chose "A Capital Event" as our theme. The Hilton Harrisburg hotel in downtown Harrisburg will host our convention on June 27th through June 30th, 2011.

Be sure to check out the May issue of "The American Organist" (TAO) magazine for our ad advertising the convention. You too can help by marking the date in your 2011 planner, telling your friends about the convention and most importantly, getting involved. Shirley King and other Steering Committee members will be presenting details about the convention at the Annual Year-End Chapter Dinner on Tuesday, May 18th. Please plan to attend.

Lastly, at this year's National Convention in Washington, DC (July 4-8, 2010), we will host a booth and our ad will appear in the convention booklet. Anyone who will attend the convention in Washington, DC will quickly see that the Harrisburg chapter members are working together to host a successful Regional convention in 2011. Be sure to check out our booth. If you plan to attend and are available to help work in the booth, please contact Kathy Gates at kgates808@comcast.net prior to June 15th.

Harrisburg - 2011 Convention

What were you doing 40 years ago? Chances are if you were a member of the Harrisburg AGO Chapter you were most likely involved in the planning for the Harrisburg 1971 Regional Convention! Forty years later we are at it again and excited about our plans for hosting colleagues and friends - June 27-30, 2011.

Come to the Annual Year-End Chapter Dinner Party on Tuesday, May 18th in Karen Appel's lovely home to hear more details about the convention! Members of the Convention Steering Committee (see the Convention Corner article) will join me in presenting our programming, opportunities for all chapter members to get involved, and some fun details of the behind-the-scenes information that goes into planning and hosting a regional convention.

We are HONORED to be hosting this convention in Central PA!

A Special Announcement

We are pleased to present a special organ recital by Cameron Carpenter in the Mt. Gretna Playhouse on Thursday August 5th at 8 PM

By special arrangement with Music at Gretna.
Tickets available at 717-361-1513 or www.gretnamusic.org/mag_htm

Cameron Carpenter will present a concert on the traveling organ that he has personally designed. It has five manuals and an extra octave in the pedal. This will be Cameron's inaugural tour with the organ. Word has it that it has to be seen to be believed. It follows in the tradition of Virgil Fox and the organ with which he traveled.

Few organists have received so many accolades, and become as well known at such an early age as Mr. Carpenter. Russian audiences demanded eight and ten encores. Even the staid British welcomed him with enthusiasm in the Royal Albert Hall in London. Only a few organists capture the attention of the New York Times and the Wall Street Journal in addition to leading newspapers across the country. More information is available at CameronCarpenter.com.

CODE OF ETHICS - Revised by the National Council on April 16, 2007

Preamble: The purpose of the American Guild of Organists is to promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles, to encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music, and to provide a forum for mutual support, inspiration, education, and certification of Guild members. Voting members are entitled to enjoy the privileges and are expected to accept the responsibilities of membership in the Guild. Members shall be considered equally for Guild offices and participation in Guild activities. These are the rules that shall be considered binding upon all voting members in good standing.

- RULE 1. Members shall promote good working relationships within the American Guild of Organists and shall respect the employment of colleagues. Members shall address differences between themselves and other members by following the procedures outlined in the Discipline.
- RULE 2. Members shall not seek or appear to be seeking employment for themselves, a student, or a colleague, in a position held by someone else. Members shall apply for employment only for a position which the employer, with the knowledge of the incumbent musician, has officially and publicly declared vacant by announcement of the vacancy.
- RULE 3. In cases pending under the Procedures or in cases where the National Council has determined that a position has been made vacant by wrongful termination of a member of the American Guild of Organists, members shall not seek or accept regular or permanent employment for themselves, a student, or colleague at that Institution until the National Council is satisfied that differences between the Guild and the Institution have been resolved. Interim services may be provided for a period of 90 days.
- RULE 4. Members shall obtain the approval of the incumbent musician before accepting an engagement for a wedding, funeral, or other service requested by a third party. In such cases, the incumbent should receive his/her customary fee, and the third party is expected to provide it. It is the responsibility of the guest member to inform the third party of this rule. Members are advised to protect themselves as incumbents in this regard by negotiating employment contracts which secure these fees and which provide some responsibility, oversight, and control as to choice of music, etc.
- RULE 5. Members shall conduct professional activities with truthfulness, honesty and integrity, and shall maintain sensitivity in matters of a personal or confidential nature.
- RULE 6. Members shall not discriminate against others on the basis of race, national origin, age, religious affiliation, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, or medical condition (including, but not limited to, Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome).

I agree to abide by the Code of Ethics.
