The Bombarde

American Guild of Organists – Harrisburg Chapter

From the Dean

Our mission is to promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles, to encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music, and to provide a forum for mutual support, inspiration, education, and certification of Guild members.

Here we are ... the end of the season. Most of the big holidays are done for us and the season to relax and regroup begins. I want to thank everyone who made the Annual Meeting and Banquet a rousing success. Some forty of us gathered at the Harrisburg Civic Club for a fine meal, a few reports, a lot of great conversation and fellowship and to be awed by the solo handbell ringing ability of our own Shawn Gingrich. Shawn was assisted at the piano by Helen Anthony. The pair gave us some beautiful bell music and Shawn blew us away playing all those bells by himself. It was a joyful evening. Particular thanks to Phyllis Conrad, our hospitality chair for the arrangements for the meal, and Kathy Gates who is our contact person with the Civic Club ... a wonderful venue.

Before you put AGO away for the summer, please remember that we have one final concert this season ... on May 31 ... a Saturday evening at 7:30pm The brilliant young organist, Nicholas Capozzoli from the Oberlin Conservatory will bring us a fine recital at Trinity Lutheran Church in Camp Hill. This is an easy venue to find, with plenty of parking and a great place to listen to organ music. Treat yourself, and support this great young artist! (See recital program on p. 2.)

May 31 . . . at 7:30pm the brilliant young organist, Nicholas Capozzoli from the Oberlin Conservatory will bring us a fine recital at Trinity Lutheran Church in Camp Hill.

Speaking of ... I note in his biography that Nicholas became interested in the organ through the Pittsburgh Organ Academy. This project of the Pittsburgh Chapter is a sort of Pipe Organ Encounter on steroids! There are various levels ... from those being introduced to the organ for the first time ... through modest and even very advanced players who gather in Pittsburgh every summer to study with the best musicians in town. It's a superb program that has borne much fruit.

Our own Scholarship Program for young students, and our support of POE's in our region also do a great deal to make our instrument interesting to promising young keyboard players, and I am grateful to Dr. Shelly Moorman-Stahlman for all her good work in bringing new students and teachers together here in Central Pennsylvania.

The fact that we do not waste our time on these endeavors was driven home to me this past weekend when Pine Street Church hosted a recital by Dr. James Kibbie, for many years co-chair of the Organ Department at the University of Michigan and now the chair upon the retirement of Marilyn Mason. Sitting together in the bar at the Harrisburg Hilton after the concert, James had high praise for the POE program. He noted that although Michigan has always had a very strong graduate organ program, it is only in recent years that a goodly number of superb undergraduate students have come through the doors there. In speaking to these young students, many of them trace their passion for the organ back to a POE. These educational programs are vital to our profession and the continuation of great organ playing in our country.

We have two young organists participating in the POE in Delaware this spring, and we hope that will bear fruit for our profession as well as all the scholarships offered by our Chapter. So come support Nicholas, and remember to find time to support a POE when you are asked!

Have a great summer everyone ... Solo Dei ...

Tom

About a member

Robert Lau was the featured clinician at the University of Florida's 7th annual Sacred Music Workshop, May 4-6. Created by the organ department's Laura Ellis, the workshop is open to students as well as church musicians in the area. Highlights included a student recital of organ compositions by Lau and workshops on various organ and church music subjects.

Also see the photo on page 3 highlighting Dr. Lau's leadership for the recent American Composers Choral Festival.

Lunch Bunch

Our next luncheon will be held on Wednesday, June 11th at 11:30 a.m. in the Bridges Café at the Radisson in Camp Hill. Please email or phone Doris no later than Monday, June 9th if you plan to attend. Phone (717) 697-4042 or email dorisagohbg@comcast.net.

Jointly sponsored by Trinity Lutheran Church and the Harrisburg Singers, The American Composers Choral Festival welcomed Central PA's own Dr. Robert Lau as its guest director on March 29. A distinguished composer and conductor, Dr. Lau conducted the Festival Choir of over 200 voices in selections written by him and several of today's contemporary American composers. Participants were members of local church choirs, and instrumentalists from the Harrisburg and Lancaster area.

Note of Thanks

Many thanks—you are all dear friends and colleagues, and I appreciate your prayers and support during this difficult time. Susan played for the funeral at St. Paul's in Dillsburg, and she played wonderfully. Her playing of the hymns and the service music was great, and it added so much to the service. David Binkley, Ron and Beth Sider, and Faith Matthews were there, and I really appreciated having such great friends and colleagues at the funeral to help send Mother off to her eternal rest. It was a glorious service, and it brought me much peace.

Hope to see you all when I play at David Binkley's church in September. Please extend my greetings, best wishes, and thanks for all of the membership there.

Best,
Craig Cramer

1943-1944 Season—From handwritten notes

The first meeting of the season was held at the Fourth Reformed Church on September 20 and was called "a get together" with a covered dish dinner. Three new members were greeted: Miss Violette E. Cassel and Rev. and Mrs. John H. Sanderson of Gettysburg. Miss Cassell was organist at the 5th Street Methodist Church, and Mrs. Sanderson was organist at the Church of the Abiding Presence at Gettysburg Seminary.

The October meeting was held at "Country Gardens", the home of Mrs. Charles Swartz. A recital of organ and piano music was presented along with several groups of baritone solos. Three new members were added: Albert Wiesmann, Miss Mary Seaman, and Stanley G. Backenstoss.

In November, during the week of rededication services in the Augsburg Lutheran Church, the Chapter presented an organ recital featuring Mrs. Vivian Steele, Mrs. Hazel A. Keily, and Miss Ella Foremen with Miss Maye Rayson as soprano soloist accompanied by Miss Sara Spotts at the console.

The annual Christmas party was held at the home of Dr. Harry D. Rhein on December 16. Christmas music for organ was played by Miss Violette Cassel, Rev. J. H. Sanderson, and Dr. Rhein. Mrs. Nelson L. Maus read a story, "Christmas in the Bach Home"; and Mr. Maus featured the 1943 version of "Mr. Santa Claus" giving a gift to each one present. Miss Laura Zimmerman lead the group in games, and "appropriate" Christmas refreshments were served!

On January 20, 1944, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Henry opened their home at 917 North 17th Street for a program entitled "Prose, Poetry and Music " presented by Miss Jean Allen. (what the program was is not mentioned in the minutes of the meeting).

On Saturday evening, February 19, 1944, an unusual program was held at Zion Lutheran Church. The recital was given by the Harrisburg Chapter for men and women in the armed forces in the vicinity of Harrisburg. An address was given by Rev. Robert Wolf, pastor in charge of the Lutheran Service Center at Zion. Pfc. Ralph Sherwood, organist at Olmsted Field Middletown; Michael Rosenberg, baritone soloist; and Corp. Walter Clissold, bass soloist of Olmsted Field, completed the program. The March meeting was postponed due to a "hard" snowstorm!

At this point the record books show nothing until October of 1944, which is in the 1944/1945 season.

Important Info for Organ Students and Teachers

Harrisburg Chapter Cassel Student Competition 2015 AGO/Quimby Competition

If you are a student under the age of 24 as of August 1, 2014 and interested in competing for cash prizes and the opportunity to become a "rising star" at the regional and national levels, please contact Ellen Hunt (ellenhunt@ruthhunter.com) as soon as possible.

Our chapter plans to submit an application to National to host the AGO/Quimby competition in early 2015. Early applications will be given preference. We need to know the approximate number of competitors before our application is sent. The Councillor for Region III will determine which chapters will be hosts based on location and number of potential competitors. Competitors must live in or attend school in the region in which the competition is held, and can enter just one chapter competition.

Details of competition requirements and an application will be in the June issue of TAO. Don't miss this opportunity for performance, adjudication, possible prize money, and local and regional recognition.
