The Bombarde

American Guild of Organists – Harrisburg Chapter

From the Dean

Our mission is to promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles, to encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music, and to provide a forum for mutual support, inspiration, education, and certification of Guild members.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Some of my favorite days of the year are the first days of Christmas when school is out and I'm on vacation. This down time to enjoy being with family and friends to continue the celebration of Christmas is the best time of the year. I hope that after the busy season you all are enjoying a bit of a break.

The Philadelphia Chapter's January JumpStart on January 16 is a great day of learning. Some deadlines are fast approaching. Please RSVP to dean@harrisburgago.org or call (717) 877-8554 if you are able to attend the January Jumpstart program. We need to know how many people will attend to arrange transportation so let me know by January 8. If you want to apply for a Throne grant to cover the cost of your day, that deadline is December 31. The form is on the chapter website: <http://harrisburgago.org/GuidelinesThrone2015.pdf>. Please be sure to read the details on this program and applying for a grant to attend in the article below.

I'm still seeking donations toward our POE+. Please consider supporting this project by sending your designated gift to the treasurer: Rick Zentmeyer, 58 Cedar Avenue, Hershey PA 17033. We also need other sponsors. See POE+ article on page 4.

Blessings to you all as you serve!

Pax vobiscum,
Shawn Gingrich

POE+ July 10-14 at Messiah College

Have you heard? Harrisburg Chapter will host the only POE+ in the nation at Messiah College from July 10-14, 2016.

We desire your financial support to make this happen. All chapter members are encouraged to make personal contributions. No amount is too small.

Please mail designated donations payable to “Harrisburg Chapter AGO” to Rick Zentmeyer, 58 Cedar Avenue, Hershey, PA 17033.

We also need the support of local businesses. If you have a connection with one that would be willing to be a supporting advertiser, please download an ad from from the chapter website: harrisburgago.org/AdForm.pdf or request a paper copy from the POE+ director, Ellen Hunt: 23 North Homestead Road, McAlisterville, PA 17049, POEplus2016@harrisburgago.org or (717) 463-9012.

Finally, we need chapter members in attendance during the week. Please plan to be present as much as you can to support the participants. Special recitals will be planned for the evenings and seminars in the afternoons.

Coming Again, Next December!

by Mary Jane Nelson

"Allegro con Fuoco", a duo that does four-hand piano, four-hand, four-feet organ, and a combination of piano and organ, gave a concert at Historic Grace Methodist Church, on State Street in Harrisburg, Sunday afternoon, December 20. Tyler Canonico and Jordan Markham, (front row, right in photo), both AGO members, combined their talents to give the audience an exciting serving of Christmas music. The program also included Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite" which was fascinating to watch! The choir, composed of singers from First United Methodist Church, Palmyra, Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, Grace Methodist Church, Trindle Spring Lutheran Church, and the Central Pennsylvania Womyn's Chorus, sang an arrangement of "Bring A Torch, Jeanette Isabella" arranged by Howard Helvey for four-hand piano accompaniment.

Participants of December 20 concert.

Tyler is now a graduate student in Organ Performance at the University of Alabama. In 2011, he was awarded first place in the AGO/Quimby Region III Competition for Young Organists, and was also the recipient of the Vernon de Tar Scholarship from the Delaware Chapter AGO. He has performed at both regional and national AGO conventions. He now serves as Organist and Asst. Dir. of Music at Christ Episcopal Church in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and is pianist for the Alabama Choir School. Jordan Markham, in addition to his piano skills, studied at the Peabody Conservatory of the Johns Hopkins University, and is a lyric baritone with ability to glide into the tenor range. Jordan sang "I'll Be Home for Christmas" on Sunday's program, accompanied by Tyler. He has sung with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, at Carnegie Hall and the Boston Symphony Hall. Jordan is presently the artistic director of The Central Pennsylvania Womyn's Chorus and is serving currently as Organist and Director of Music at Trindle Spring Lutheran Church, Mechanicsburg. It is planned for Tyler and Jordan to use their musical talents in concert again next December. You won't want to miss it!

From the Convention Committee

Dear Dean Gingrich and the Harrisburg Chapter of the AGO,

On behalf of Dr. Rhonda Furr, our Convention Coordinator, greetings to your Chapter from the Steering Committee of the 2016 National Convention of the American Guild of Organists. We here in Houston are excited to be your hosts for what promises to be an outstanding celebration of our art. We would greatly appreciate the publicity of the convention dates (June 19-23, 2016) and website in your chapter newsletters and events in the coming months. Registration opens on October 15 with a special low rate for those able to register that soon. The main convention website is www.AGOHouston2016.com.

We are honored to host the American Guild of Organists' National Convention, a premier gathering of organists, organ enthusiasts and other musicians.

Our steering committee has worked for over four years to bring you an incredibly exciting and richly diverse program. Internationally renowned organists will perform on phenomenal instruments in wonderful venues. You will enjoy performances by world-class choral groups and instrumentalists, including the world premier of 17 commissioned compositions. A wide selection of informative workshops and inspiring worship will be offered as you connect with old friends and make new ones.

Don't miss this historic event. Visit AGOHouston2016.com and discover all the details. There you can sign-up for our monthly electronic newsletter so you can take a behind-the-scenes look at our preparations for the convention. We want to see you in Houston, in June 2016

With much appreciation,
Dan Fenn

The position is available January 1 or later as negotiated.

Director of Music: The Historic Grace United Methodist Church, Harrisburg seeks a Director of Music (12-15 hours per week). We are located in Downtown Harrisburg, "at the foot of the Capitol". We are becoming a diverse, Christian congregation reinventing, through the grace of God, how we follow and serve Jesus Christ in the 21st century. Grace Church has a long tradition of excellence in choral, organ, and piano music featuring a variety of musical periods and styles. One choir rehearsal and one Sunday morning service per week with the possibility of a second worship service in the next year and additional special services during Advent, Holy Week, etc. Excellent Austin-Möller pipe organ of 78 ranks, four manuals, and six divisions; and Steinway grand piano. Bachelor's degree in music performance preferred. Musical versatility and flexibility are required. Must be a follower of Christ, having the ability to minister, play and direct various types of worship music from Theodore DuBois' "Seven Last Words of Christ" to traditional hymns, to Contemporary Christian music. Must work effectively with pastor and be collegial with church staff as well as members of the congregation. Position to begin as soon as possible. Salary $19,000; additional income from weddings and funerals. Four weeks vacation. Send resumé and references to Music Director Search Committee, Grace United Methodist Church, 216 State St., Harrisburg PA 17101, by January 15, 2016.

Organist / Pianist: Twenty-Ninth Street United Methodist Church, Harrisburg is seeking applicants for the part-time paid position of Church Organist/Pianist. General responsibilities include selecting and providing organ/piano music for Sunday morning worship service and any other scheduled special services where the organ/piano is the primary instrument. The organ is an Allen Organ Custom 2D4 model built to AGO specifications. It has 40 speaking stops, two full 61 note Manuals, Swell and Great. It also has a full 32 note pedal board and contains a settable 5 piston button moving stop tab capture system on the Generals and Manuals. A detailed job description is available by calling the church office at 564-5821 or e-mail a request to um29th-street@mindspring.com. Resumés must be received by December 31, 2015. Please send your resumé via e-mail to: um29th-street@mindspring.com or a printed copy may be mailed to: Organist Search Committee, Twenty-Ninth Street United Methodist Church, 750 South 29th Street, Harrisburg, PA 17111.
