The Clarion

American Guild of Organists – Harrisburg Chapter

From the Dean

The mission of the American Guild of Organists is to enrich lives through organ and choral music. To achieve this, we:

- Encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music;
- Inspire, educate, and offer certification for organists and choral conductors;
- Provide networking, fellowship, and mutual support;
- Nurture future generations of organists;
- Promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles; and
- Engage wider audiences with organ and choral music.

Greetings, colleagues!

It's hard to believe that we are just a few short weeks away from the start of so many of our church programs. So, too, we are gearing up for a wonderful program year here in our chapter. Thanks to the hard work of so many, our program year is shaping up to be one of our best yet, and I can't wait to share in it with you!

One of my favorite quotes by Hellen Keller says: "Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much." As a chapter, we are always looking for ways to keep our membership healthy and growing. Consider bringing someone with you to one of our events this year, or ask a colleague who may not be a member yet (or has been away for a while) to consider joining. As our chapter grows, so does our ability to do even greater things in our local communities!

Know of my prayers for each of you as things begin to start up again. May God continue to bless you abundantly for the many wonderful things you do in His name!

I look forward to seeing many of you at the scholarship recital on August 25th!

Pax vobiscum,
Justin Myers, Dean

2019 Scholarship Recital—Sunday, August 25 at 4 PM

The annual celebration recital for our Shenk scholarship will occur at Market Square Presbyterian Church, 20 S 2nd Street, Harrisburg on August 25 at 4 PM. We will feature four students: Alyssa Meyers and Torrey Reinford, and two first-time Shenk scholars Elizabeth Parsons and David Kaag. Their teachers, Christopher Prestia, Brain Rotz, and Conrad Smith will also perform. This year we have invited the winner of the Cassel Competition (a Regional Competition for Young Organists), Patrick McMullen. Patrick will perform his three competition pieces.

The church will provide parking in the city-owned Market Square Garage (corner of 2nd and Chestnut). Access to the church building is from the first level of the garage or from the Second Street entrances. A reception will follow the recital.

I hope you will come and support the future generation of the organ! This will be a great recital to kick off our 2019 – 2020 season!

All my best,
Tyler Canonico, Sub Dean

2019 Members of Honor

At the banquet and annual meeting on May 6 we honored two long-time members of the AGO. Congratulations to Anna Royer and Carolyn Wright.

Chamber Musicians in Hershey

A lively afternoon of chamber music by talented musicians Mike Klucker, Laura Ibrahim, Megan Pfiester, Ethan Fasnacht, Dan Stokes, and more will be presented at 3 pm Saturday, August 3 in the Sanctuary at Derry Presbyterian Church, 248 East Derry Road, Hershey. The program will feature rarely performed but fiery selections by Francaix, Piazzola, and Gjeilo. Admission is free. Handicapped parking and an elevator are available.

Mike Klucker is a member of Derry Church, a recent graduate of The Pennsylvania State University with a Bachelor's in Music Education, and a recipient of the Performer's Recognition and Creative Achievement Awards. He teaches music at Fairfax County Public Schools and maintains a private lesson studio in the Springfield area. Mike also is a freelance cellist, making appearances with the Washington Metropolitan Philharmonic, Pennsylvania Chamber Orchestra, and other venues throughout the DMV area. As a student at Hershey High School, Mike formed a chamber orchestra that played for worship services at Derry Church.

After winning numerous piano competitions and participating in all-state orchestra, Laura Ibrahim decided to double major in music education and viola performance at East Carolina University. Due to a need for violists, she was asked to switch to the viola with the ECU orchestra. There she was the recipient of the Senior Award for Instrumental (Strings) Music Education. Laura has attended several music festivals, and has performed in master classes for distinguished teachers such as Xiao-Dong Wong, Maria Lambros, Hsin-Yun Huang, and Jessica Thompson. In addition, she has performed for the Four Seasons Chamber Music Festival, "Next Generation Concert" series, under the direction of Ara Gregorian, and studied strings & conducting with Joseph Walker, Melissa Reardon, Hye-jin Kim and Jorge Richter.

Laura has a Master's Degree in Orchestral

Conducting, and teaches strings in the Fairfax County Public Schools. She has nearly doubled the size of her string programs, working with about 300 students a week. Laura has hosted The Pyramid Orchestra for her district, and has also been an adjudicator for Solo and Ensemble Festival. She is the principal violist of the Washington Metropolitan Philharmonic, and teaches privately.

Megan Pfiester graduated from Case Western Reserve University and the Cleveland Institute of Music with degrees in Music Education and Violin. While there she studied under violinist and pedagogue Dr. Stephen Sims and participated in lessons, seminars and performances with members of the Cleveland Orchestra and Cavani String Quartet. In addition, she was the recipient of the Doris Young Harstock Prize for outstanding performance in music education and received department honors in both performance and education. Ms. Pfiester currently teaches in the Fairfax County Public School district in Northern Virginia and maintains a private teaching studio in Arlington and Lorton, Virginia. An active musician and freelance artist on both the violin and viola, she has performed as soloist, orchestra and chamber musician across the United States.

Ethan Fasnacht is a rising senior at Penn State University studying Music Education. His most recent performances were as a tuba player in the Ephrata Community Band, a pit keyboardist for FUSE production's "Jesus Christ Superstar" in State College, and as a singer with the Penn State Concert Choir. Ethan teaches private piano lessons in his hometown in Ephrata.

Dan Stokes serves as Derry Church's Interim Organist and Music Director. He is a graduate of Messiah College and Scaritt Graduate School with a Master's in Church music and has an impressive career with many accomplishments. Dan returned to Hummelstown after serving for 26 years as Organist/ Director of Music Ministries at Christ Church United Methodist, Louisville, Kentucky.

Derry Presbyterian Church is affiliated with the Presbyterian Church (USA). Worship services are held on Sundays at 8:00 and 10:30 am and Tuesday evenings, 6:45-7:30 pm. For more information, call the church office at 717-533-9667 or visit derrypres.org.
