American Guild of Organists – Harrisburg Chapter

From the Dean

Our mission is to promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles, to encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music, and to provide a forum for mutual support, inspiration, education, and certification of Guild members.

Dear Harrisburg Chapter Members,

We have started our 2011-2012 Program Year with a 'bang'!! Both the August and September programs were well-attended and both provided a "forum for mutual support, inspiration and education of Guild members." This phrase from the AGO Mission statement is the basis for all our events, and all our members need to support this principle. One should not join the AGO to 'get a job' or to receive TAO; rather all our members need to be involved in whatever we do as a chapter. This will be our legacy to the future strength of the Harrisburg Chapter.

And speaking of the future, let me thank those teachers who trained our young Shenk Scholarship students. What a joy to hear these young people perform, after only ten lessons and I might add, on a rather large instrument. One young man could hardly reach the pedals, but he played with great poise and from memory!

Our September program was a mix of exceptionally good and copious food offerings—you all know about our chapter's Pot Luck Suppers; a Report by Shirley King on the Regional Convention—with a balance of app. $33,000 after all bills have been paid—WOW, a solid legacy for the chapter's future financial health. Thank you, Shirley, and all chapter members who participated in one way or another in A Capital Event. The evening closed with a brief panel presentation on "Tips from Great Teachers," given by Ellen Hunt, Shirley King, Robert Lau, and Ralph Kneeream.

I thank Shawn Gingrich for hosting our August program and Robert Lau for hosting our September program. Please plan to be with us on Saturday, October 15, for the next chapter event. The "Program of Duets" begins at 9:30 am at Christ Lutheran Church, Elizabethtown, and it ends at Christ Church UCC, Elizabethtown. (See program details on page 2 and/or on the Chapter Website.) I want to thank Deb Dillane and Ray Edmison for planning and hosting this most interesting program.

There have been several leadership changes/additions in recent months. Esther Long will serve on the Board to complete the two years of Ryan Brunkhurst's term; Shirley King will chair an Ad-Hoc Committee on updating Chapter Procedures; Shawn Gingrich will chair the new Communications Committee—Newsletter, QuickNews, and Website; Shelly Moorman-Stahlman will chair the Education Committee; and Jim Acri will chair a new Finance Committee. I wish to thank the above-mentioned members for their willingness to assume these critical positions.

Recently, the chapter received a generous gift from Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church of Penbrook to the Yocum Fund, in honor of Chuck Yocum's service to the church. Chuck retired recently as Organist and Choir Director.

Speaking of chapter funds, the Shenk Scholarship Fund is in need of money. We want to continue this indispensable education program next summer. Please consider making a tax-exempt contribution.

Thank you, one and all, for your commitment to the Harrisburg Chapter.

Soli Deo Gloria
Ralph Kneeream, Dean

Next Program: "Duet"
Saturday, October 15, 2011

Join us in Elizabethtown this month for a program entitled, "Duets" - two players on an organ, two players on a piano, and one on each instrument. The event will be split between two Elizabethtown churches. From 9:30 to 10:15 music selections will be heard at Christ Lutheran Church, 133 East High, where Deb Dillane, Music Director, will serve as host. From 11:00 to 11:45 music selections will be heard at Christ Church UCC, 247 South Market, where Margaret Rohnacher, with Pastoral Care at Masonic Village, will serve as host. Light refreshments will be served at Christ Church UCC between the two performances.

A wide selection of music styles and themes will be presented by Guild members and their guests. We will hear music for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and general hymn singing just to name a few. One of the highlights will be a movement from a Bach Brandenburg Concerto transcribed by organist Max Reger for piano-four hands. This will be performed by Debra Ronning, Lecturer in Music from Elizabethtown College and Michael Murray, Executive Director of Music at Gettysburg. Please join us for an exciting morning of music.

Directions to Christ Lutheran: From route 283 take the Hershey / Elizabethtown exit and go south on route 743 toward Elizabethtown. Once on Market Street in Elizabethtown go to the main intersection and turn left on East High Street. Go two blocks to the church on the left.

Membership Corner

by Doris Savage

Welcome to our newest members who have joined our chapter in the new fiscal year: Tyler Canonico, Dawn Gribb, Joe Gribb, Steven Lee and Laura Ramsey. Please introduce yourself if you see any of these newest members at a chapter event.

Prayers and thoughts go out to member Pat Frysinger who is currently undergoing medical treatments and to Kathy Haskins who broke her wrist.

Paraclete Press has accepted Robert Lau's composition "Fanfares and Toccatas on Engleberg" for publication. This was the composition commissioned and played by Shirley King at the opening festival of our Region III convention on June 27, 2011.

Please send contributions of news: happy, sad, congratulatory, etc. to membership chair Doris Savage, 12 Wineberry Dr, Mechanicsburg PA 17055 or email dorisagohbg@comcast.net or call 717-697-4042.

From the Registrar

The 2011–2012 chapter directory will be printed in early October and will include names of those holding a current membership in the chapter. The directory will be available for pick up at the "Duet" event to be held on Saturday, October 15th. If you have any change since turning in your membership form, i.e., church position, email address, please email Doris Savage at dorisagohbg@comcast.net or call 717-697-4042. no later than September 30th.

From a Member

It is a privilege and an honor to be a member of the Harrisburg Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. On the national level, there are many benefits to being a member, including receiving a subscription to the wonderful TAO (The American Organist) magazine. Voting membership is available to all organists, choral conductors and other individuals who support the mission of the Guild. Another category of membership, "Chapter Friend" is for an individual who is not an organist, but would like to support the chapter. Our chapter has varied programs, workshops and recitals throughout the year and there are monthly opportunities to interact with chapter members at social luncheons. For those less active, why not make it your goal for 2012 to become more active. The rewards will be many!

Monthly Lunch Bunch

We'll meet on Wednesday, October 12 at 11:30 a.m. in the Bridges Café at the Radisson in Camp Hill. Please call or email Doris Savage no later than Monday, October 10th if you plan to attend: call 717-697-4042 or email dorisagohbg@comcast.net.

Treasurer's Report

Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church of Penbrook contributed $1,000 to the Yocum Scholarship Fund in honor of Chuck Yocum's service to the Church upon his retirement as Organist and Choir Director.

Shenk Scholarship—as our Dean noted on page one, this fund is in need of replenishment. The balance is currently $578.77 which is not enough for investment. This amount is currently held in the general checking account.

The Bombarde Online

We added two additional chapter members to the list of those willing to read their newsletter electronically. This brings our total to sixty-eight. If you are willing to read The Bombarde online to save the chapter the cost of printing and mailing, please e-mail the editor Shawn Gingrich at bombarde@harrisburgago.com.

Positions Available

Part Time Organist: Lewistown Presbyterian Church, 17 E. 3rd Street, Lewistown, Pa 17044. seeking a part time (8 hr./wk) musician proficient on piano and organ. Responsibilities include one Sunday morning worship service and special services during the year and rehearsing with the adult choir. Salary $7000+ depending on qualifications. Please send resume to church or email to lewispre@comcast.net. attention Ruth Fisher. Church web site lewisownpresbyterian.org has additional information.

Organists: St. Andrew's Episcopal Church is looking for 2 organists, one to play an 8AM service, hymns only and one to play a 10:00AM service, hymns and service music and to direct the choir. The 8 AM service is conducted at our facility located at 19th and Market Street in Harrisburg and the 10 AM service is conducted at 4620 Linglestown Road, Harrisburg. Interested persons should contact St. Andrew's Church office at 717-657-8583 or the Rev. William Alford at 717-817-4744.

Music/Choir Director: St Peter Lutheran Church, 130 Nittany Dr, Mechanicsburg PA 17055. Salaried position. Responsibilities include: Directing Senior Choir for two Sunday morning services (September through early June) as well as other special worship events throughout the year.; rehearse the Senior Choir on Thursday evenings and just prior to the services on Sunday; arrange for special music for a single service on Sundays mid-June through Labor Day; direct and rehearse tone chime choir; select hymns and plan choral music in coordination with the liturgical season and pastor; work with the organist to manage music files. Candidate should possess some experience in choral direction or related music experience. Please send resume to stpeter@epix.net or to the church.

Part-time Organist: Church of the Loving Shepherd, 1066 S. New St., West Chester, PA 19382, a 110 family member Christian church affiliated with the International Council of Community Churches, is seeking a part time (3-5 hrs/wk) organist to start mid-September. Primary responsibility would be accompanying congregational hymn singing and special music. The organist would play for 10 am worship services at least three Sundays a month and for special services, as well as weddings and funeral/memorial services. A 12-20 adult member choir, a number of whom are professionally trained, sings once monthly. Special music at other services is provided by in-house or paid musicians - professionals and advanced students - so proficiency as an accompanist is desirable, as is good sight-reading ability. A children's choir sings 2-3 times a year. While our worship is structured, we are not averse to flexibility. Our tradition is based in classical music, with occasional jazz or folk music. The congregation contains a number of professional musicians, and everyone appreciates the high quality of music. We need an enthusiastic and versatile organist who can collaborate with the pastor and an active music committee and music coordinator. We have a digitally catalogued music library. Our organ is a 9 rank mechanical organ (Wissinger tracker with electronic bellows). Also available: a Steinway B grand piano, basic handbell set and various percussion instruments. Visit www.lovingshpherd.org for more information. Salary consistent with AGO guidelines: $6,000-12,000 depending on qualifications and final determination of responsibilities. Please email resume, cover letter and references to: StarrSCB@aol.com.

area events in the arts and much more. Our listing of area organs contains fifty-five different instrument specifications with photos and other details. Current area job openings, a list of available substitutes, and other job-related information are available in the jobs section. This is just the beginning of the information we share among ourselves and with the world. If you have the details on an instrument which is not featured, would like to add events to the area events, or have any helpful suggestions, please contact me webmaster@harrisburgago.com. To explore the website visit harrisburgago.com.

In addition, the chapter has a group page on Facebook: search for "Harrisburg Chapter of the American Guild of Organists." We have 45 chapter members and area friends connected to that group able to share information and read about upcoming events. If you are on Facebook but are not yet a member of the group search it out. I also am able to add you to the group if you are my friend.

Finally, the national office has a large amount of useful information on their website: agohq.org. They already have some information posted about the national convention next year July 1-6 in Nashville, TN. Another interesting section to explore lists all of the chapters in the world, linking to their websites if they have one. They also have a national AGO facebook page with almost 600 fans connected. Search for "American Guild of Organists" and like them.

W. Dudley Oakes Recital in Hershey

The sacred concert series of First United Methodist Church, Hershey begins its 2011-2012 series with organist W. Dudley Oakes, Vice president of Orgues Létourneau Limitée, builder of the pipe organ at the church. The recital will be presented Sunday, October 9, 2011 at 4:00 PM at the church, 64 West Chocolate Avenue, Hershey.

In addition to his work with the organ firm, Dr. Oakes is organist at St. Joseph Catholic Church on Capitol Hill. Oakes is also on the music faculty of Shenandoah University in Winchester, Virginia where he has taught theory and organ since 2001. As Vice President for Sales and Marketing for Orgues Létourneau Ltée he has worked with the company on installations coast to coast since 1987.

Dr. Oakes has enjoyed his association as adjunct faculty member at George Washington University and American University in the DC area. Prior to moving to Washington, DC Oakes was most recently a member of the music faculty of Virginia Wesleyan College in Norfolk, Virginia and Acting Director of Music and Organist at First Presbyterian Church. At Virginia Wesleyan Oakes was associate professor of music and served as artistic director of the Virginia Wesleyan Center for Sacred Music. Prior to Norfolk, Oakes was on faculty at Thiel College in Greenville, PA. where he served as chairperson of the music department. At that time, he also served as interim Organist and Choirmaster at Shadyside Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh.

Dr. Oakes holds the DMA in organ performance from the University of Michigan.

This concert is free and open to all. A free-will offering will be received at the door. For more information call 717-533-9668 or visit the church website: www.firstumchershey.org

Presbybop Quartet at Mechanicsburg Presby.

Bill Carter and the Presbybop Quartet will be at Mechanicsburg Presbyterian Church on October 23 at 7:00 PM for Jazz Vespers. Bill is a Presbyterian minister who is a fabulous jazz piano player who has studied with Dave Brubeck. The quartet will accompany their soloist, Warren Cooper, lead some hymns and share some of their music from their latest CD. Bill will include a meditation as well and the Chancel Choir will sing with Mr. Cooper. There will be a free-will offering and child care will be provided.

The church is located at 300 E. Simpson Street, Mechanicsburg. Visit www.Presbybop.com for information about the quartet.

Centennial Event for Wanamaker Organ

Tickets are selling fast for the Friends of the Wanamaker Organ's next major Centennial event on Saturday October 1, 2011: a concert with Peter Richard Conte, conductor Rossen Milanov and the Symphony in C orchestra. Works include the Charles-Marie Widor Sixth Symphony for Organ and Orchestra, Joseph Jongen's "Hymne" and "Alleluia," and the Guilmant Symphony No. 2 for Organ and Orchestra.

The event is held in full partnership with Macy's.

Because the orchestra will be on the balcony in front of the organ, the best seats for hearing and seeing the orchestra musicians are in the back of the Grand Court, with the very prime seats directly opposite the Organ or opposite the Console in raked rows on the Second Floor. See the chart below for details. There are seats available for every pocketbook. Ticket proceeds benefit the Friends of the Wanamaker Organ. Tickets are on sale now exclusively at SymphonyinC.org.

Free sound and visual presentations will also be offered in Greek Hall earlier in the day: Rick Seifert will give his acclaimed presentation on the Wanamaker Organ at 10:15 AM and Agnes Armstrong will discuss Alexandre Guilmant, Wizard of the Organ at 2 PM.
