American Guild of Organists – Harrisburg Chapter

February Program

Our mission is to promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles, to encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music, and to provide a forum for mutual support, inspiration, education, and certification of Guild members.

We will gather for our next program at Camp Hill United Methodist Church, 417 South 23d Street, Camp Hill, on Tuesday, February 10, 2015 at 7:00pm.

Chapter members will be participating in a members' recital playing settings of chorale and hymn melodies from varying time periods.

Brian Rice will be our host for the evening and we thank him for his efforts to welcome us. The organ is a Moller / Walker combination rebuilt and expanded in 2010 by Ray Brunner and Fred Buch. The specification is featured on our website: <http://harrisburgago.org/AreaOrgans/CampHillUMC/CampHillUMCSpecs.HTM>.

Thanks to Delight St. John-Brainerd for her efforts to plan this program. Please plan to attend to support those playing, to hear the organ, and to learn something about our heritage of hymns, and to celebrate the creativity of composers from old to new.

Board Meeting

February 17 at 7:00pm at Trinity Lutheran Church, Camp Hill. Chapter Members are invited to attend.

From the Dean

Five Harrisburg Chapter Members traveled to Bryn Mawr to participate in the January Jumpstart on January 17. The day was well planned and the clinicians were exceptional.

Highlights of the day included the ensemble of singers from the National Cathedral—"Cathedra" who participated in the time of worship, the sessions on the church's 48-bell carillon, the stunning church facility, and the connections made with others.

Kudos to the Philadelphia Chapter for the work to make this annual event a huge success! Plan ahead now to attend this event on January 16, 2016. We are planning it to be our January event next year.

Please think about a budding young pianist you may know and encourage them to apply for an organ scholarship this summer. Page 3 has details on our scholarship offerings. We have had numerous success stories. Let's begin some more!

I do hope many of you will come to the February event. It's so important to be connected to others and our events are a great time to see others, catch up with them, and just value our time together. See you on February 10.

Blessings to you all as you serve!

Pax vobiscum,
Shawn Gingrich

Help the Annual Fund

Our newly elected treasurer on the AGO National Council, Barbara Adler, asked everyone to donate at least $1 per month, or $12 each year in the November issue of The American Organist. She hoped that everyone would contribute this affordable amount, although many of our members already give more. If you calculate $12 from each of 15,000 members, this annual revenue would total $180,000! With our diminishing membership rolls, this revenue could help keep us in the black and able to continue our educational and outreach programs as well as the beneficial services we offer our members.

The Annual Fund makes possible many things for the Guild some of which include:

- Certification programs
- Catalogue of educational materials
- Support for POEs (Pipe Organ Encounters)
- Support for January Jubilees
- Travel for volunteer leaders' meetings and visits to chapters
- Chapter Management Handbook
- Website and job postings
- National Online Collection and Remittal of Dues (ONCARD)

Ms. Adler wrote: "Please accept my thanks for using your newsletter - and perhaps offering a few words at your upcoming meetings—to emphasize the importance of each member's contribution to the Annual Fund. Just $1 a month would help balance the books!"

Getting to Know Holly Gainor

by Mary Jane Nelson

Currently full-time director of music at Tree of Life Lutheran Church, Holly has been integrated in musical endeavors throughout her life, and has been associated with a number of our Chapter's past and present members, as you will discover.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, she grew up in Harrisburg in a totally musical household, experiencing piano lessons, sing-alongs, bassoon-playing, music camps, and handbells. Every music teacher with whom she studied was associated in some way with Lebanon Valley, so that's where she went for her college experience. Dr. Robert Lau, at that time, was music department chair. Holly sang in the LVC Concert Choir for four years with the late Dr. Pierce Getz, from whom she learned a tremendous amount about singing.

Holly has taught in the Central Dauphin School District and with the Harrisburg Catholic Diocese, in addition to having many private piano students. She studied organ with Gerald Hoover, when he was employed at Zion Lutheran, Harrisburg, and pursued graduate studies in educational strategies at Wilkes University.

Holly, now living in Paxtang, has been married to Ray for 24 years, and has three children: Emma (20), David (19) and Noah (16), plus two Jack Russell terriers, Patch and Jessie.

In addition to musical activities, Holly is a certified massage therapist with an interest in alternative health. She continues to implement these skills with family and friends, but music is her full-time choice of occupation. At Tree of Life, she plays an organ, built by Robert Carbaugh, for all services, conducts the adult choir and two handbell choirs, handles all the administrative musical tasks, organizes the children's Sunday School music, develops liturgies with the pastor, oversees the Praise Band director, and builds the master music schedule. To assist her, she has "a small army" of folks who offer their time and talents as soloists or instrumentalists.

It's hard to imagine that Holly has "free time", but she also enjoys puzzles, flower gardening, baking, sewing, and do-it-yourself projects around the house. After all of this, Holly says she likes to "sit still and drink tea!"
