American Guild of Organists – Harrisburg Chapter

From the Dean

Since I'm writing this the week before Easter, the busy push through Holy Week is in full force but I'm anticipating a joyful celebration and some relief in the schedule coming soon. I hope you have had good success in leading your parishioners and I also hope that as your schedule lightens a little you may have time to attend our upcoming programs. We will hear chapter member Aaron Sunstein present a recital at First Lutheran Church, Carlisle on April 10 and the annual banquet will be held May 10. Details of both events are listed below.

Pax vobiscum,
Shawn Gingrich

Next Program

Sunday, April 10, 2016, 3:00pm

Aaron Sunstein in recital

First Lutheran Church, 21 South Bedford Street, Carlisle.

The mission of the American Guild of Organists is to enrich lives through organ and choral music. To achieve this, we:

- Encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music;
- Inspire, educate, and offer certification for organists and choral conductors;
- Provide networking, fellowship, and mutual support;
- Nurture future generations of organists;
- Promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles; and
- Engage wider audiences with organ and choral music.

Organist Aaron Sunstein will present "Masterworks for Pipe Organ" on Sunday, April 10 at 3:00 PM at First Lutheran Church, 21 S. Bedford Street, Carlisle.

The recital will feature something for everyone including Bach, jazz, and birdsong. Designed to showcase the majesty and versatility of the church's Aeolian-Skinner pipe organ, which is regarded as one of the finest instruments in South Central Pennsylvania, the program will feature works from the French symphonic organ tradition by Franck, Tournemire, and Messiaen as well as two major works by J.S. Bach and Billy Strayhorn's Lotus Blossom.

Aaron is performing this concert in honor of his teacher Delbert Disselhorst, concert artist and Professor of Organ Emeritus at the University of Iowa, who was scheduled to perform on this date but withdrew due to ill health.

As Minister of Music at First Lutheran Church in Carlisle, Aaron directs four choirs in addition to serving as principal organist. He is a candidate for the Doctor of Music in organ degree at Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. A member of the Harrisburg Chapter of the AGO, Aaron is dedicated to furthering the understanding of great organ music from all periods.

Sponsored by Fine Arts at First, the concert is free to all. A freewill offering will be received, and a reception will follow the performance. For more information, contact the church, (717) 249-3310, or visit www.firstlutherancarlisle.org.

Arts Fest in 2016

by Herb Dimmock

ArtsFEST draws huge crowds over Memorial Day Weekend to Harrisburg. The festival has lots of superb arts and crafts, all located along Front St. St Stephen's Cathedral is in the very center of the festival.

As I have done for the past two years, I play a 15 minute recital every hour on the hour all day long, on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. I would like to expand this program in 2016 by welcoming fellow AGO members to play on this event. I'd suggest that each person play a 30 to 50 minute recital. Participants would be encouraged to bring materials with them which detailed musical events at their home churches & schools. Said materials would be put out for the entire weekend in the church narthex. Dates and times are May 28, 11 to 5, May 29, Noon to 5, and May 30, 10 to 5.

Players would be encouraged to emphasize music that would appeal to organ novices such as the Bach Tocatta and Fugue in d or the Widor Tocatta.

Anyone who is interested in donating their time and talent to this cause should email me at thdimmock@gmail.com or call 236-4059. I will continue to sign people up until all the slots are filled.

The American Composers Choral Festival

Trinity Lutheran Church, 2000 Chestnut Street, Camp Hill will host the American Composers Choral Festival on Saturday, April 9, at 7:30 pm. The combined Festival Choir of over 200 singers from Trinity, the Cedar Cliff Chamber Singers, the Harrisburg Singers, and other local churches will be under the direction of guest conductor and composer Craig Courtney. Jointly sponsored by Trinity and the Harrisburg Singers, Courtney will conduct the Festival Choir in selections written by him and several of today's contemporary American composers. Tickets are $10 and are available from the church office (717) 737-8635.

A native of Indiana, Craig Courtney began playing the piano at the age of three and the cello at the age of eleven. He received a Bachelors and a Masters degree in piano performance at the University of Cincinnati, studying piano under Raymond Dudley and chamber music under Walter Levin of the LaSalle Quartet. During that time, he was a member of the Pi Kappa Lambda Honorary Music Society.

Following a three-year stay in Milan, Italy, where Mr. Courtney studied the piano with Illonka Deckers, performed for the Associazione Musicale "Gustav Mahler", and worked extensively as a vocal coach, he was invited to join the music faculty of the famed Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria, serving as piano teacher and accompanist for the woodwind and brass department.

It was during this six-year period, while serving in the music ministry of the Salzburg International Baptist Church, that Mr. Courtney began directing a church choir and composing sacred choral music, due to the unavailability of English language music. In 1985, his compositions came to the attention of John Ness Beck, through the publication of his octavo, "Thy Will Be Done," initiating a close working relationship between the two men which continued until Mr. Beck's death in 1987. In making plans for the ongoing of Beckenhorst Press, Mr. Beck appointed Craig Courtney to assume his responsibilities as staff composer and editor.

In demand throughout the country as a choral clinician and featured composer, Craig Courtney now resides in Columbus, Ohio with his wife, Susan, and his fourth son, Nathan.
